

Charleston Chapter SCSPE Fundraising

As I'm sure you are aware, the Charleston Chapter of SCSPE is actively involved with several local activities that enhance the Engineering profession. As in previous years, we count on sponsors like you for the success of these activities.

The activities include providing a barbeque supper and a presentation on the importance of licensure to the Citadel seniors just prior to the Fundamentals of Engineering Exam, monthly socials, a local chapter electronic quarterly newsletter, the Lee H. Clippard, Jr. Memorial Scholarship, Engineer's week, and finally the MATHCOUNTS program.

MATHCOUNTS is a national math enrichment, coaching and competition program that increases achievement in middle school mathematics throughout the United States. "Mathletes" compete individually and as teams. Winners progress to the State and National MATHCOUNTS competitions. Costs include competition trophies, fun prizes, beverages, lunch, and travel money to help the local winners advance to the state competition.
